

CHAPTER 9

The procedure followed in the making process including channels of supervision and accountability.

The organization Chart itself shown the process of vertical and horizontal channels of decision making process for junior level to senior level with reference to power of delegation and duties mentioned in col. 2