ORDER
(Dated this 2nd Day of May, 2016)

The Applicant has approached the Committee on the ground that their application has been treated as non-responsive. It is the Applicant's case that by communication of 14.03.2016, the Applicant had received a communication from the Respondent asking them to furnish the documents, which had not been furnished. According to the Applicant, on 15.03.2016, they had furnished the documents and this was reflected in their letter dated 01.04.2016.

The Respondent have filed their reply and pointed out that the Applicant neither uploaded the documents nor submitted documents, which are listed under Sr.No. 1 to 7 of their reply dated 22.04.2016. It is also pointed, out that considering that all the three tenderers had not submitted documents, all the three tenderers were held non-responsive.

In our opinion, there is no material before us to show that Applicant had uploaded his documents or had handed over the documents to the concerned officers of the respondent. In these circumstances, we are clearly of the opinion that the Respondent were right in treating the bid of the Applicant as non-responsive. The application is accordingly dismissed.
